Annie Pearl Osborne

APR 1, 1940 - FEB 3, 2016

Annie P. (Harris) Osborne went home on February 3, 2016 under the care of the Allegiance hospice home in Jackson, Michigan. Annie was born on April 1, 1940 in Osceola, Arkansas. She was preceded in death by her parents and eldest sister Carlee (William) Brown. Annie was one of nine children born to Sylvester and Mozzella Harris.

Annie held several occupations working for Jackson Public Schools, Walker Manufacturing, and Medical Care where she later retired from. Annie also had many things she enjoyed doing which included going to bingo, crocheting, listening to the blues (down home blues was her favorite), and playing Tripoli, as well as cards with her sisters, and friends.

She leaves to cherish her memory, three sons; Ricardo (Michelle) Hurst, of Jackson, Michigan, Anthony (Elizabeth) Hurst of Ypsilanti, Michigan and Darrell Hurst of Montgomery, Alabama, five sisters; Deloris (James) Whetstone, Candis (Cliff) Hollis, Rosa Lee Thornton, Gwen Pryor, and Ruthann (Patrick) Edwards; two brothers; Robert Harris, and Gerome Harris all of Jackson, Michigan, seventeen grandchildren; Randall, Tanisha, TaCarra, Breanna, Quinn, Rico, Nate, DeAudra, Megan, Christopher, Christian, Ashley, Tony, Devin, Amber, Alliyah, and Rasaan, fourteen great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, and many relatives . The family would like to acknowledge Annie's special niece; Rosalyn Range, longtime friend; Ella Jean Oliver, special friends; Dorothy Tribblett and Carmen Jackson, and her daughter-in-law; Teri Taylor.
