To the Abrams Family, Though we can not be with you, we are with you in spirit as you lay your father to his final resting. You are continually in our prayers. We know that he fought a good fight, finished his course, and kept the faith. Knowing that you can lift up your heads and be lifted up and the king of glory shall come in. We love you all, Dwight & Jeanie Fontenot

To my Uncle Cleon, Aunt Val, Aunt Sonnie, Uncle Leon and extended family, I would like to say I love you all and I am praying for your strength as we lay to rest a very beloved member of the Abrams Family and the Jackson community. He blessed our lives with wisdom, love, and so much joy. Grandpa was a man who believed in family, as do I. While social distancing may prevent me from traveling, it will never keep me from touching and agreeing and consoling family. I am a phone call or message away. Grandpa will be missed as much as he was loved. I feel blessed for the time God lent him to us and I pray the love and lessons he has given me personally will provide me with memories and comfort and I pray the same for all of you.Love you guys,Dorie

Obituary

Clinton A. Abrams, Sr. was born to Alfred and Jeffrie (Dodd) Abrams in Bessemer, Alabama. Clinton went home to be with the Lord on April 10, 2020. He was preceded in death by his parents, Alfred, and Jeffrie Abrams, wife Josephine, sisters, Dorotha, Erma, and Carol, brother, Donald, and son, Clinton Abrams Jr., and daughter, Juanita.

He enlisted into the Marine Corps on September 28, 1944 and was discharged June 15, 1946. After discharging from the Marine Corps, he moved to Detroit, Michigan. He met Josephine Bicy and they married on July 26, 1947. From that union three children were born: Cleon, Leon, Clinton Jr., and a daughter, Juanita from a previous marriage.

He retired from Clark Equipment and worked as a School Bus and Head Start driver. His hobbies were camping, bowling, golfing, and traveling.

He leaves to cherish his memory his sons: Cleon (Vid) and Leon (Sonie) Abrams, thirteen grandchildren, thirty-five great-grandchildren, twenty-three great-great-grandchildren, and one great-great-great-grandchild; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. He will surely be missed by his family and all that new and loved him.

I leave you with this quote, "Be Good to Yourselves"

"I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die."
John 11:25-26

Don't Cry For Me
Don't cry for me now I have died; for I'm still here I'm by your side.
My body's gone but my soul's in heav'n, please don't shed another tear.
I am still here I'm all around, only my body lies on the ground.
I am the snowflake that kisses your nose; I am the frost that nips your toes.
I am the sun, bringing you light; I am the star, shining so bright.
I am the rain, refreshing the earth; I am the laughter, I am the mirth.
I am the bird, up in the sky; I am the cloud, that's drifting by.
I am the thought, inside your head, while I'm still there, I can't be dead.
