Deborah Lynn Blakely

NOV 7, 1958 - NOV 11, 2019

Deborah Lynn Blakely (Jones) was born November 7, 1958 to Ruby L. Jones and James Thomas. Deborah attended Jones Elementary School, Barbara Jordan Elementary (Junior High) School, and Kettering High School and obtained her GED from a local vocational school. She loved dancing, joking around, family and God. She accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior, always sharing His good news. She was a simple woman that took joy in simple things. She was always willing to help others and encourage them in the Lord. After phone calls with her, she would always say back at the ranch, catch 22, kicking the bobo, read psalm 23, watch as well as you pray and how much she loved us. People knew her as Deb or Dah - Borah near Mack and Van Dyke...she was always kind but also a feisty firecracker as well if you rubbed her the wrong way. Our mother was very versatile; from fixing cars, to painting, singing, dancing, carpentry and etc. So, on November 11, 2019 the Lord said to her, good work and I'm proud of you as He called her home to battle no more. Deborah was preceded in death by her son; Eddie Lewis Jones, III, mother; Ruby Lynn Jones, father; James Thomas, brothers; Leroy Jones and Butch Jones, sisters; Julia and Mary Jones, and aunt; Margaret Louise Goree. She leaves to cherish her memories, her husband; Eddie Lewis Blakely of Houston, Texas, two daughters; Dateesha L. Cavin of Elyria, Ohio and Christinna L. Blakely of Detroit, Michigan, and one son; Titus L. Blakely of Detroit, Michigan, son in law; Aaron L. Cavin of Elyria, Ohio, son in love; Philip Wells, daughter in love; Tracy Rodriguez, granddaughters; Sydni Blakely, Sariah Blakely, Sage Cavin (who will always know you as Debra Grandma) and Avani Cavin, grandsons; Spencer Blakely, Philip Wells, Jr, Eddie Jones IV and Aaron L Cavin, Jr, four sisters; Anita Williams, Janice Blackwell, Beverly Jones, and Jean Jones and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.
