Jacquez Romeo Dupri Evans

NOV 25, 2000 - AUG 13, 2019

Jacquez Romeo Dupri Evans was born on November 25, 2000 in Jackson, Michigan to Jerome Evans and Sheila Wallace. Jacquez was a very loving, outgoing and ambitious person. He was very true to himself and loved playing basketball, football and all kinds of video games. He had a unique sense of humor; he was the type of person that when he walked into the room he would make everyone laugh, his jokes were the loudest and the funniest. Jacquez was very talented he could dance, sing and had the biggest smile which was contagious. He will definitely be missed. Jacquez was preceded in death by his uncle; Samuel Harris. Jacquez leaves to cherish his memories his parents; father, Jerome Evans, mother and stepfather; Sheila (Antoine) Wallace, brothers; Jeremiah, Samuel, and Antoine, sisters; Shinish and Lillie, grandparents; Jerome Evans, Sr., and Lillie (Dennis "Big Daddy") Herr, uncle; Clinton Harris (Ashley), aunts; Danielle Evans, LaShonda Evans, Devonne (Kyle) Pace and Cheron Lynch (Stephano), and a host of great-aunts, uncles and cousins. Also a very special friend dear to his heart; Lanae Watkin. Jacquez will be missed by all that knew him. We, the family, extend our love and appreciation of prayers and condolence during this time. Jacquez's spirit lives within his family and he will NEVER be forgotten.
