Sadie B. Worthey

JUN 7, 1939 - MAR 10, 2019

Sadie B. Worthey, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and rock to her family was called home to be with the Lord Sunday, March 10, 2019 under the care of hospice and surrounded by her loving family. Sadie was born June 7, 1939 in Florence, Alabama to the late William and Eddie Lee (Edwards) Brewer. She accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and served tirelessly at the Higby St. Church of Christ until her illness prevented it; under the leadership of James L. Burrus, Ministering Evangelist. Through the years, Sadie held various jobs, such as daycare provider and the Jackson Harness Raceway; but her proudest accomplishment was making sure her children and grandchildren were introduced to Christ by attending Sunday school and worship service. She worked behind the scenes to help prepare souls to be baptized as she served on the baptismal committee. Also, for over 20 years, she labored in the Free Blessing Shop/Pantry at the Church of Christ; which feed and clothed the underserved in the Jackson community. She enjoyed traveling with her family and church family; as long as it didn't involve flying, she did not like planes and would not fly. Preceding Sadie in death are her parents; brother, William (Sonny) Brewer; granddaughter, Brianna Brown and grandson, Marshan Worthey. Leaving to cherish her memory are her husband, John Worthey; two sons, Donald (Debra) Brown and Christopher Brown; four daughters, Bettistea Brown and Alma Brown all of Jackson, Michigan, Lynn Brown of South Carolina and Ellen Brown; two grandchildren she raised, Montez and Tawana Worthey all of Jackson, Michigan; brothers, Steve Brewer of Dearborn, Michigan, Randolph Brewer of Ypsilanti, Michigan; and sister, India Brewer of Ypsilanti, Michigan; eighteen grandchildren, Donte (Kat) Brown, Antione Thomas, Stepheno Thomas, Shariesha Thomas, Alisha Reese, Antionette Reese, Robert Brown, Deonta Brown, Tenisha Brown, Danielle Richardson, DeMario Richardson, Desiree Johnson, Dalisa Brown, Alisha Stewart, Allen Stewart, and Tomika Stewart;

God saw Sadie getting tired and a cure was not to be, He wrapped her in His loving arms and whispered come with me. She suffered much in silence and her spirit did not bend. She faced her pain with courage until the very end. She tried so hard to stay with her family, but her fight was not in vain, God took her to His loving home and freed her from the pain. May the peace of God surround your family during this time of great sorrow. With Sympathy, Willie & Sandra Charleston Jr. & Family
