Enoch Throckmorton, Sr.

MAR 2, 1931 - OCT 7, 2018

Enoch Throckmorton Sr. was born on March 2, 1931, in Oxford, North Carolina. He was the 5th of 11 children born to the union of the late Ernest and Hattie Satterwhite Throckmorton. Seven of his siblings preceded him in death. Enoch was educated in the Joe Toler school system. After graduating in 1951, he joined the United States Marine Corps and served until he was honorably discharged. He enrolled in Barber College; upon completion, he married Ernestine Young in 1956. Born to this union were three children: Enoch Throckmorton Jr., Gloria Samuels-Jackson, and Elaine Throckmorton. In 1966, Enoch moved his family from Chicago, Illinois to Ecorse, Michigan and started his business as a barber. He was a mentor and role model to the community. His entrepreneurial spirit and heart for service made him a visionary leader. Aside from being a barber, Enoch enjoyed gardening, baking, fishing, and teaching Sunday school. His passion for encouraging others drove him to minister in the convalescent home for 52 years. “I cannot be idle, for Jesus says, ‘Go and work in my harvest today; and then at the evening, when labor is done, whatever is right I will pay.’” - I Cannot Be Idle | William J. Henry He leaves to cherish his beloved wife of 62 years, their 3 children, 9 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and dear friends.

Uncle Enoch, this is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. Psalm 118:24. You will be greatly missed by your loved ones, family and friends, but we will share all the great memories of times we have shared with you. May the Joys and Blessing be with you always as you sit on the right hand side of God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. Rest In Peace my uncle.
