Velma Jean Robinson

DEC 10, 1940 - APR 23, 2020

Velma Jean Watts Robinson was born December 10, 1940, in Brandon, MS. The daughter of Elbert Watts and Lula Mae (Watts) Brown. Both parents preceded her in death.

Velma professed a hope in Christ at an early age and was baptized at Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church in Brandon, Mississippi. After graduating from Brandon High School she relocated to Jackson, Michigan to live with her Aunt Nora, and later united in holy matrimony to Eddie Robinson who preceded her in death. She later married John Stewart who also preceded her in death.

Velma was a long-time member of Lily Missionary Baptist Church where she worked tirelessly for many years. At Lily Baptist, Velma was a faithful servant of the Lord and served in various ministries. In her later years of life, Velma moved her membership to Greater Bibleway Temple.

Velma was a fabulous cook! Her food was loved by all, some of her signature dishes include her Dinner Rolls, Dressing, Turnip Greens, Yams, Chicken Tetrazzini and Apple Pies. Velma was sophisticated, graceful, and beautiful inside and out. Velma had a heart of gold and a smile that would light up a room. Whatever the need, Velma was there to help. Besides Velma's culinary skills, she was also known for her impeccable dress and beautiful hats. No matter the occasion you would find Velma dressed from head to toe with her beautiful warm and loving smile and a beautifully designed hat.

Velma has always been a hard worker, often working two jobs to provide for her family and help others. After retirement Velma cared for and nurtured several children and elderly in the city of Jackson. Although stern, Velma conveyed the love of Christ in her interactions with others as only one could express who knows the heart and mind of Christ Jesus.

Velma Jean Watts Robinson departed this life on Thursday, April 23, 2020, She is

Dear Pam and Jan-There's so much we can say about our beloved Velma. There are so many precious memories of fellow shipping at church, shopping trips, and travel throughout our nearly 40 years of friendship. Our friendship endured throughout some of the highest and lowest points of life, but the love and respect always remained the same. Velma was a beautiful woman, from the inside out. She genuinely showed the love of God to all she encountered. I understand how painful this grief is right now. But my prayer is you will find rest in God's grace, and that His peace will cover and sustain you. May you forever cherish the many wonderful memories you have. The love you had for your mother was evident by all. Find comfort in knowing she is resting peacefully now with the Father. We are praying for your continued strength. Love, Raymond and Mary Helen Ball.

Dressed from head to toe like it was Easter Sunday in a beautiful brown suit with her fur :) I love how close you guys were, which I'm sure makes her transition that much more difficult. Remember to look to the hills from whence your help comes from. May God grant you all the comfort, strength, and encouragement you need, as you begin a new journey without her presence. It saddens my heart to speak of Sis. Robinson as a memory, but I have confidence in knowing that she resides with the Master (II Corinthians 5:8). I have fond memories helping her weed her flower beds, retrieving things from her basement that seemed like a store itself, my son and I helping shift furniture to prep for Christmas decorations or laughing at she and my mother deciding on what to put in the yards next. We loved Sis. Robinson, and I am so thankful that many years ago she decided to move to Russell street. Sis. Robinson, your style, your voice, your beauty, your kindness, your work ethic, your cleanliness and your love for Christ will never ever be forgotten. You will live in our hearts forever.
