You were so little when we met sticks or pencil I would call you. Playing basketball was your thing. Then you grew up got all big. I'm like Jermaine boy you been working out. To have met you and call you my little brother was a honor. Make sure you watch over your family this is a very hard one. We all luv you from near and far.

I remember when Jermaine was very young and his mama & my cousin Earnest (my 1st cousin) would visit in Ypsilanti over the weekend. They were visiting his grandma and Jermaine always played with my oldest son; that's what I call memories. I can say my heart is heavy.....I am very saddened by his passing yet I truly believe he is in a better place. May the Lord keep him in perfect peace till we meet again.....

Father
 Forever in my heart, always on my mind.
 Together again we will be, all in God's time.
 Heaven gained another angel the day you left.
 Eternity promises you much needed rest.
 Rest now, Dad, I'll be okay because I carry you with me every single day.
 Love Always, Ja'Kobe

*Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you, and if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself: that where I am, there ye may be also.
 John 14: 1-3*
