Obituary
 Kenneth Qwinton Robinson was born August 31, 1987 to Kenneth and Anna Robinson in Ann Arbor, Michigan weighing one pound fifteen ounces. He departed this earth on October 31, 2020. He was known to many as Mookie.

He was preceded in death by his three grandparents: Kenneth Robinson, Sr., Ella Mae Hill and Robert Lee Hill all of Jackson Michigan.

He was employed in the clothing thrift stores of Jackson. He also enjoyed swinging on the swings with his three beautiful nephews and playing some of the halcyon videogame, his favorite activity. He also enjoyed relaxing at home with his family a true hombody.

He leaves to cherish his memory his parents: Kenneth and Anna Robinson of Jackson, Michigan; his two siblings: Marquon and Lamecia Robinson of Jackson, Michigan; and his three nephews: Jayceon, Custimer, and Ivory Robinson all of Jackson, Michigan. He was a loving brother, obedient son and a friend to so many and leaves behind a host of cousin's aunts and uncles and very special friends to cherish his memory.

I'm Free
 Don't grieve for me. For now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard Him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tears left and me must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting had left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. Oh yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full. I've succeed much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time named all to brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me; God wanted me free. — He Set Me Free.

God saw his pain, he whispered in his ear, come with me my son you task is done, I am the resurrection, and the life, he that believeth in me, though he was dead, yet shall he live, and whosoever loveth me, and believeth in me shall never die. John 11:25-26

Choices
 You can shield tears that he is gone or you can smile because he has lived.
 You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all he's left.
 Your heart can be empty because you can't see him,
 or you can be full of the love you shared.
 You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
 or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
 You can remember that only that he is gone,
 or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.
 You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back,
 Or you can do what he would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on."
John 11:25-26
