*He'd about our Hallelujah and his come would away,
no matter the weather no matter the day
The summer Sundays he'd have water to give you That silhouette of a man that stood in the back like a security guard keeping things in track, down for that come find you that give you a job, Man with his Owendyn (I say he'll be able)
He was a strong man who didn't hold back. Trusting God as a matter of fact He'd eat his grapes and others too. There was never a time he had nothing to do.
He had a great to keep going even when the task was complete that you were my brother, the kind that's always there.
You were one of a kind and there are very few, it will be easy
Remembering you, my brother Butch Love Still, Debra.*

*God saw his pain, he whispered in his ear, come with me my son you talk to alone,
I am the resurrection, and the life, he that believeth in me, though he was dead, yet shall he live, and whosoever believeth on, he will never die.
John 11:25-26*

Choices

*You can shed tears that he is gone or you can smile because he has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all he's left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see him,
or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember him only that he is gone, or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back,
Or you can do what he would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on."*
