Mr. Jackson was a pillar in the Ecorse Community. I am so sorry for this great loss. My father (Frank Fields) was his good friend. They shared many days planning to make Ecorse better. He will truly be missed. Sending my deepest condolences 🧡🧡🧡

What a great person. He was just a wonderful husband, father and grandfather. We had a lot of talks at the Barbershop on Salliotte. We talked about politics, life, sports or whatever the subject matter was. I am going to truly miss your leadership and wisdom. Thank you lord for allowing this great man to cross my path. Now rest up my friend. I know your wife and daughter where waiting for you at the pearly gates of heaven, together once again. Mayor Lamar Tidwell

I'm so very glad that God blessed me with you as a big brother. I know God loves me because 17 years before I was born He had already prepared the greatest protector, securer, provider any little girl would be blessed beyond measures to have ♥. Love you so very much big brother and will deeply miss your presence but the spirit of you shall never leave my heart; always and forever♥

Uncle Winfred, you were my first hero. You've always been a comfort. I will miss hugging you and you kissing me on the cheek, telling me I can do anything. To the moon Unc, past the stars, you're soaring now. May you have peaceful rest. I love you.

His Journey's Just Begun. .Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun; Life holds so many facets---this earth is only one. Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years , Think how he must be wishing that we could know today, how nothing but our sadness can really pass away. And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched...for nothing loved is ever lost---and he was loved so much. William & Cilea Preyor
