Thank you Marvin for blessing us with your big heart, smile, laughter and generosity. You taught me how to enjoy life more and not take it so seriously. I love you always and I'm so grateful to you for being an amazing husband to Kris. Your spirit lives with us forever. Love you brother. Ehren David Edralin

Marv I remember meeting you in Windsor for the 1st time and I knew then you would be my sister's husband just the way you knew how to handle her. Then I remember when you and my sister came to ask my dad for her hand in marriage and Marissa and I sat and waited for you guys we were so excited and I knew then you would be my brother and friend for life and that you would take care of my sister. You always had my back, I will truly miss your laugh and coming to Detroit to visit you!
