Taylin Dequon Alexander

JUL 22, 1994 - FEB 27, 2022

On July 22, 1994, Taylin Dequon Alexander was the bundle of joy delivered to Katrina Stephens and Deon (Quita) Chapman.

Taylin spent his whole life in the Jackson Public Schools System. After graduating he started working at various jobs. He even tried his hands at boxing and martial arts.

Around the age of 20, Taylin experienced the joy of his life. He became a father, Taylin cherished Iszabella Alexander and later Arya Horton. Those two were definitely “Daddy’s Girls,” and there was nothing that he wouldn’t do for them. Taylin was not only that way for his girls, but also for his family members. When family would have gatherings at Paw-Paw’s house, Taylin made sure that he and the girls were there. His smile would be like the SUN shining inside and it would bring warmth along with it.

We’re really not sure if he had ever met a stranger, because he would help anyone if he could. There wasn’t an evil bone in his body. Taylin started his detailing business, Detail Bro’s and when he cleaned a car he put his all into it, just like anything else he put his mind to.

Taylin was a mentor to the younger African-American males in Jackson and he would do whatever he could to brighten someone’s day. Taylin showed others that you can have whatever you want, if you work hard for it. He worked hard at everything he did.

Taylin departed this life February 27, 2022 and he leaves behind to carry on his legacy, two darling daughters; Iszabella and Arya, Mother; Katrina Stephens, Father; Deon (Quita) Chapman, Sisters; DeMonica Williams, Talesha Stephens, Simin Alexander, Tienja Alexander, brothers; Deon Stephens, Alton Alexander, Jr., William (Susan) Alexander, Grandparents; Robert (Rossalind) Stephens, Sr., Rosalyn Swanson, Aunts’; Salina Stephens, Michelle (Jeremiah) Bacon-Kerns, Taylin was so pure at heart at which you rarely see during these horrible times, especially in young, black men. I remember when Anthony passed and his heart was just as pure. It makes you wonder or question Why? Even with our strong faith and trust in our most high as we have, we still ask the question. Why? We have to remember God sees what we will never see. God does things that we could never understand why. Someone so pure in this evil World, I wonder Why. Should God take us at our purest moments on Earth or should he take us once we have already been consumed and lost in this World. Should he take us when we have completely lost faith and there's no more hope for paradise or when he knows when he says that it's time to save his children before it's to late. We must trust and have hope for whatever purpose God had to call him home. I love you all. More like family to me and one thing I know is Gods strength is in all of you.

To the grieving family words cannot express how heavy your hearts are. I did not know this young man and have heard so many wonderful words about him. Sorry that his life was taken from you as he was striving in life to be a business owner and a single father / dad to his children. I will keep you all in my prayers.

I am old neighbor and would look out the window and see him put the girls in the car for day care in the morning since the little girl was in a infant seat and the other girl was in a car seat. I think he was the best dad ever. I praise any man that is good like that and he was a hard worker. He will be greatly missed
