Anna Marie Robinson

FEB 11, 1967 - FEB 28, 2024

Anna Marie Robinson was born on February 11th 1967 to Ella Mae and Robert Lee Hill in Jackson Michigan who preceded her in death. Anna was also preceded in death by her oldest son (Kenneth Robinson jr) and husband (Kenneth Robinson Sr.). She was known to many as mother, grandmother, and sister a highly respected woman in her community. Anna was born and raised in Jackson Michigan where she raised her family and lived for fifty-seven years with her husband of thirty-eight years and three children. In her early years she was a member of The New Greater Bible Way Temple Church under the leadership of Bishop Ira Combs Jr..

Anna was employed through Jackson Public Schools for fifteen years in dietary before retiring. She enjoyed family gatherings where she cooked and took care of her family and friends because she always made sure to feed any and everyone it was her humanitarian duty to make sure of this. Anna also enjoyed spending time with her family and friends as often as possible. Anna was a free spirit and full of joy she loved to laugh and make others smile her best attribute. She also loved true crime shows and her favorite show Friday Night Smack Down and playing her favorite game Bingo Blitz on her cell phone that she finally learned how to use.

She leaves to cherish her memory her daughter (Jamecia Robinson) and two sons (Marquinn Robinson and Dennis Marble) from Jackson Michigan. Two sisters (Aretha Hill and Ramona Hill) both from Jackson, one brother (Ricky Willams) and three grandchildren (Jay, Cas, and Ivory Robinson) all from Jackson Michigan a host of nieces, nephews, and friends,.

She was a mother, grandmother, wife, and sister, a true humanitarian to everyone who knew her and will be sadly missed.

My cousin Anna Aka Poochie, I'm going to miss you dearly. You're in Heaven with your mother and Father, Mookie and Winkie. The Lord call you home we love you. All parts of my life I've seen you. You watched me and my siblings when we were young. You were my lunch lady throughout high school and always ask how my mother was and siblings. You were also at my High School graduation. ❤️ Last time I saw you, you thanked me for attending Mookie's Homegoing. You were a strong woman. Praying ya'll Big Daddy and Jamie.

Dear family and friends. I worked with Anna at Jackson High School. She was always smiling and her good saying was " God don't like ugly." She would say that if someone had a bad attitude. She was always nice to me. We shared a birthday just days apart. After she left JHS , because of health. I would see her on the bus. We would hugs and kiss each other on the cheek. I am going to miss that sunshine she carried with her. And those hugs. But, God has a really special person now. Anna, keep that smile. And God has a beautiful person now, not a ugly person. Love you ❤️ Belinda ( Blondie)
