My sincere condolences to the family. I met Audrey a few short years ago when she joined St. Patrick's Senior Center. From the very beginning, she generously shared of her time and talents in the area of crafting. She was a welcome addition to the group. Even after she could no longer attend the center for activities, she continued to donate special items to help support the center. Audrey will be missed by those of us who had the pleasure of sharing time and telephone conversations with her. May God bless and keep you all. Laverne Lucas
