Mark L. Jackson

AUG 24, 1971 - AUG 19, 2024

Mark Jackson was born on August 24, 1971, in Detroit to James and Audrey Jackson. Both parents preceded him in passing. Mark was the youngest of four siblings (James, Carol and Daniel, all preceded him in death) and received his education through the Detroit Public Schools system, graduating from Cooley High School in 1991.

The Jackson family was very active in the church and Mark attended and served at the Spiritual Israel Church and It's Army as long as his health permitted.

In 1995, Mark and Jalynda Royster brought into this world a son, Marquis Jackson. Over the years, Mark's life was a tapestry woven with threads of determination, laughter, and boundless love. He worked for a handful of companies and organizations, and still found time to give back to his community and help others while battling with sickle cell disease.

In 2001, Mark and at the time 3ancé Denise Murrell were blessed with a daughter, Marielle Jackson. Over time he shared his love for music, dance and thirst for knowledge with all those who were fortunate enough to share in his life's journey.

The simplest pleasures in life brought great joy to Mark. He loved playing video games (especially Madden and Mortal Kombat), watching sports and enjoying a quiet evening with friends and family. Mark had an uncanny ability to make the best out of nothing and always kept a smile that brightened anyone's day.

In this rearview reflection, we celebrate Mark – a cherished father, uncle, church servant and friend. As we bid him farewell, let us remember the love he brought into our lives and 3nd solace in the eternal peace of his memory. In the words of one of his favorite albums, “Wu-Tang Forever” may Mark's
