One of my most fondest memories of Auntie Dorothy was a very pretty white dress that she handmade for me to wear once all the formal pictures were taken at my wedding! She was beautiful gentle soul, that's truly missed! Sincerely Althea R Jackson-Cole

To Lori, Bruce, Cheryl, Donna and Carl, you're resting in my thoughts and prayers. It is at this time when beginning the journey of grief that you need shoulders, quiet whispers of your name before the throne of God, and the quiet of the healing presence of the Lord. May peace like a river attend your way, and may the God of all comfort, comfort you in a most tangible way. Know that there are countless people of God who are calling your name before the Lord. Prayers and Love, Tanya Maria Word

I met Grandma Woodmore as a young boy attending Vacation Bible school at Southside Church of God. I never imagined being part of her family until I met her daughter, Cheryl Woodmore, as a young child attending Trinity Missionary Baptist Church. Cheryl became my adopted godmother and Grandma Woodmore my adopted grandmother. Such a sweet, beautiful, kind and loving person. I never heard a negative thought, word or deed come from her. And she made the best egg custard pies. I am forever thankful and grateful to God that Dorothy Jean Woodmore blessed my life. 🙏🙏🙏
