Brian Ross Gamble

JUN 14, 1982 - OCT 15, 2024

Brian Ross Gamble, 42, was born on June 14, 1982, to Larry Gamble and Christine (Adams) Gamble. Brian unexpectedly passed away on October 15, 2024.

Brian was a proud graduate of Albion Senior High School, Class of 2001, and went on to receive a Certificate in Cabinet Making from MCTI (Michigan Career & Technical Institute) in 2003.

Brian was a devoted member of House of Prayer Worship Center, where he worshiped under the leadership of his parents, Pastor Larry and First Lady Christine Gamble.

Brian's employment history included roles at Albion College, serving as a nurse assistant at Grace Home, and working at Team 1 Plastics for the past 15 years.

Brian had many passions in life, including spending time with his children and family, fishing, and watching basketball and football. He enjoyed watching movies, listening to music, and was known as a jokester who loved to laugh and have fun. A proud "Mama's Boy," he cherished his mother deeply, while his dad was his hero. With a kind heart, Brian loved celebrating his birthday, whether on his own or with family and friends.

Brian was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents: John & Evelyn Gamble, Sr.; Robert & Ella Mae Adams, Sr.; Aunts: Deloris Dudley and Glenice Adams-Rozier; and Uncle: John Gamble, Jr.

Brian is survived by those who will forever hold his memory close. Parents: Larry and Christine Gamble; Daughter: Jada Gamble; Son: Keyonta Gamble; Brothers: Lapree (Aisha) Gamble, Lewis Adams, and Michael (Ashley) Gamble; Aunts: Ethel Holt, Susie Reynolds, and Cathy Hollians; Uncles: James (LaTanya) Gamble; Robert Lee Adams Jr., and Clevon Adams; God brother: Thomas McCormick; Special Friend: Aubrey Gonzales; A host of special nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.
