Lorenzo Darrell Scott

JAN 27, 1968 - JUN 8, 2025

Lorenzo D. Scott, beloved son, brother, father, and friend, was born on January 27, 1968, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to Robert and Pearley Scott. At the age of five, Lorenzo and his family relocated to Jackson, Michigan, where he attended Jackson Public Schools and graduated from Jackson High School in 1986.

Following high school, Lorenzo attended Ferris State College. He proudly served his country in the United States Military and was a veteran of Operation Desert Storm in 1991. After his Military Service, Lorenzo worked in various fields and eventually retired as both a respected machinist and a proud veteran.

Lorenzo was preceded in death by his father, Robert Scott, in 2019. He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Pearley Scott of New Jersey; his siblings, Robert Scott Jr. (Doreen), Andrea Scott of New Jersey; Timothy Scott (Melissa) of Philadelphia, PA, and Yolanda Scott of New Jersey; and his two daughters, Ateja and Dijiana, both of Detroit, Michigan. He is also survived by a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, extended family, and lifelong friends.

Renzo, as he was affectionately known, will be remembered for his kind heart, steady presence, and the unwavering love he had for his family. A great man and a cherished soul, he was truly a beloved brother, son, and father.

We will all be sure to carry his memory with us—

Forever in Our Hearts.

To the Scott family We are lifting you all in our prayers. We met Lorenzo when he was a young person attending Mt.Zion Church of Deliverance in Jackson. His father was also the best man at our wedding in 1985. Trusting God to give you strength during this difficult time. May God keep you in his care. Brother Warren and Minister Kathy White.

Lorenzo and I met in the 80's and remained friends, not only friends, but my true brother. We have so many memories together from my children, to good times and bad times. We were each other's support. I will always cherish him and love him for life.
