I still don't believe that you're no longer here with us. It feels like my world has been shattered into a million pieces and I'm stuck having to pick them all back up piece by piece. I just want to talk to you one more time and hear your voice. All the best memories I had in Michigan were with you, my aunt and my uncle and of course my cousins lol. I loved to come and sit and talk for hours with you. Listening to you laugh us talking about people lol. I'm going to miss all that. I'm so hurt that you're gone. But I know you're happy and you're at peace. I hope you're up there laughing and having a time of your life with your siblings and your parents. I loved when I would do something stupid or something and you'd be like Vanessa you know you're my favorite granddaughter. But don't tell nobody lol. Now I can tell everybody grandma lol. I hope you rest peacefully and easy! I'm going to be okay. But just know that I love you very very much. Until we meet again my beautiful angel.
