

Jacquemas Yvette Campbell

August 24, 1972 - October 11, 2017

Jacquemas Yvette Campbell, called Jackie by family and loved ones, was born August 24, 1972 in Albany, Georgia to the parents of Mary J. Campbell and Ulysses Wilson, also of Albany, Georgia.

At the age of four Jackie and her family moved to what she considered her hometown Detroit, Michigan where she was educated in the Detroit Public School system. Jackie graduated from Edwin Denby High School in 1991. While in school she had many accomplishments; captain of the debate team, editor of the newspaper, editor of the year book, secretary of key club and Lieutenant of JROTC.

She furthered her education at WCCCD where she received two Associates Degrees in Liberal Arts and Science, winning her scholarship to Michigan State University. At MSU she studied Fisheries and Wildlife. While studying at MSU she was able to study abroad, traveling to London, England and South Africa. She left MSU to attend Wayne State University. While attending Wayne State she received her Bachelors and Masters in Business Administration and Business Education. Jackie used her education while working for HAP for over fifteen years.

Jackie was a bright and highly intelligent woman. She was known for her gracious smile that would light up a room, her grand personality and huge heart. Jackie always wanted the best for her family and friends; never meeting a stranger, she was always willing to help anyone that she came into contact with. Christmas will never be the same, it was her favorite holiday. She made sure everyone had a gift; especially all of the children.

Jackie leaves to cherish her loving memory, her mother; Mary J. Campbell, brothers; Spencer, Terrance, and Cameron, her sisters; Senta, Alicia and Taryn, six nephews; Travis, Brandon, Spencer, Cameron, Justin, and Christopher, four nieces; Sade, Natasia, Imani, and Aaryn, one great niece; Angel-Marie all of Detroit, Michigan and countless friends.
