

Patricia Ann Kinnel

March 18, 1939 - August 5, 2019

Patricia Ann (Hardman) Kinnel was born in Jackson, Michigan on March 18, 1939 to Vivian (Summons) Hardman and Grady Hardman. She was preceded in death by her parents, stepmother; Toni Hardman and brothers; Steve Hardman and Harry Jr. Hardman. Patricia, affectionately called Ms Pat, loved her children and grandchildren unconditionally. She loved people and enjoyed spending time with her family and her friends. Pat enjoyed playing Bingo and scratch-off cards. She loved watching scary movies and taking car rides to the Eastside of town where she grew up. Pat was known to go down memory lane sharing great stories about growing up on the Eastside of Jackson and her favorite dog Rex. Pat was a true warrior, she battled multiple sicknesses including kidney failure with strength, never complaining; always smiling and always believing that she would be okay. As an adult Patricia was baptized and received the holy spirit and on July 25, 2019 Pat rededicated her life to Jesus with her favorite song "Precious Lord, take my hand" playing in the background. Patricia leaves to cherish her memory six daughters; Vicky (Grady) Quicksey, Viola (Wayne) Stephens both of Denver, Colorado, Valarie Amos of Lansing, Michigan, Debra Fowler, Vivian McNish, Betty (Jeffery) Briston and one son; Grady McNish, all of Jackson, Michigan. one sister; Colette Bills, one brother; Carlos Hardman and one stepsister; Theresa McKinney and stepbrother; Craig McKinney all of Jackson, Michigan and stepbrother; Clemons McKinney of Detroit, Michigan, plus eighteen grandchildren, thirty-five great grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren. Special individuals close to her heart include Joyelette Isaac (special niece), William (Butch) Hill, Toni Taylor, Carla Paschall, Minnie Hartman, Melvin Hartman and a host of relatives and friends.
